Mission Trip Highlights

Our youth will be leaving tomorrow for their mission trip. Want to know how they're doing during the week? You can find updates on our Facebook page this coming week!

High School Mission Trip 2019

Words of Encouragement for our Youth

If you would like to send words of encouragement to our youth while they are away at camp and their mission trip, send a text to Lisa Brooks at 614-560-1369 or Rachele Kramer at 602-690-0194.

LSS Food Pantries and Full Choice

Beginning July 1, LSS Food Pantries is going back to "full choice," meaning clients will be able to choose all the food they receive. This means the days are numbered to turn in your Basic Bags! LSS will continue to use Basic Bags through the end of July. You can turn in your bags at the blue bin across from the church office door.

In-Person Events

We're bringing more and more groups back into the building! We're looking forward to seeing Men's Breakfasts, Yoga, Pastor's Bible Study, and more, now and in the near future. You can view all of our events and group meetings on our website calendar.

Seeking Soundboard and Live-streaming Volunteers

All Saints is seeking volunteers to help run the soundboard or live-streaming system during worship services. If you are interested in signing up and learning the system, please contact Kay Labosky at kayl@saintsonhigh.org.

Tools for School

All Saints is beginning to collect monetary donations for Tools for School for St. Paul Lutheran Church in Ironton, OH! You can make a donation online at the E-GIVING tab on our website, or write a check and bring it into the church office.

Faith, Life, and the Future of All Saints

Don't miss our final episode of Faith, Life, and the Future of All Saints, coming this Wednesday at 4:00 p.m. on our Youtube channel. In the last episode, Pastor Scott meets with Congregation Council members Ryan Long, Julie Claus, and Beth Patton to discuss the ELCA's "Future Directions" and what that means for All Saints.
